

UNCORKING THE PROCESS

A free* research workshop facilitated by Dr. Paul Wishart, educator and consultant in Grounded Theory

Join us to learn, share, and support each other in research!

We will cover:

- Dealing with issues (the literature, ethics review, reviewer feedback, etc.)
- Conceptualizing and emergence versus description and forcing
- Developing theoretical sensitivity
- Getting started, doing, and finishing your research
- Exploring the relevance of spiritual care for the qualitative researcher

And:

- Share examples of our research process, including the opportunities, challenges and pitfalls
- Discuss the challenges and developing resources for writing and disseminating your research
